

Procedure - Student Driving

Students may drive automobiles to and from school. Student automobiles may not be driven during the school day without the consent of the student's parent and principal. Students may not transport another student during the school day unless written consent has been granted by the parent of the student driver and the parent of the student passenger.

A student may use the school parking lot subject to the following conditions:

- A. A student must register the car in the school office. The student must possess a valid Washington State driver's license and show evidence that there is a liability and property damage insurance coverage on the vehicle and acknowledge that they will assume full responsibility for any comprehensive or collision claims that may occur while on school property;
- B. Students may not occupy a vehicle (without permission) during the school day;
- C. Student vehicles are subject to search by school authorities based on "reasonable suspicion" that a search will reveal evidence that a student has violated school rules or the law; and
- D. In terms of student conduct rules, "possession" of alcoholic beverages, illegal chemical substances or opiates, firearms or a dangerous weapon will also extend to a student's vehicle.

A student who does not conform to the above rules will be subject to corrective action.
