Trigger is the point at which the student enrollment in a class, or the daily teaching load (secondary), pays Class Load Relief. Trigger at the secondary level is calculated and paid as either the total daily TLN (Teaching Load Norm), or as individual classes (which ever is greater). For further details please refer to Section 6.7 of the PA.

Trigger dates for the 2019-20 school year are: 9/25, 11/21, 2/11 and 4/22
