

FREE WEBINAR

How "the talk" can keep your kids safer online.
presented by Amy Lang

Your kids are online more than ever these days and it is important you know how to keep them safer when they are on the internet, gaming, texting...you name it! Sexuality and parent educator Amy Lang with Birds & Bees & Kids has generously offered a free webinar for our school!

Event Details:

WHEN

Wednesday, October 28

7:30pm - 8:15pm

PLEASE JOIN US!

Register Here

You will learn:

- Why talking to your kids about sex will help keep them safer online.
- How to reduce the chance of porn exposure.
- How to have the sex talks, when to get started and what they need to know by middle school.
- How to make it more likely they will tell you if they see something yucky online.
- Simple tech tips to make their online time safer.

Can't make it live? It'll be recorded!

The Edmonds School District does not sponsor or endorse the activity and/or information contained in this material.